

Precision Cycles at the Canada Day Parade

This July 1st the coalition entered a precision walking entry into the Canada Day parade. The 12 member team invested hours of practice into their routine (mostly in the rain) and were joined on parade day by 2 banner carriers, Lawrence Vea & Will Hunter, music man, Dylan Hibbert, their caller, Terry Dekker and photographer Angela Holmes. A tremendous effort for this event!

The Dress Rehearsal complete with the front & back slogan placards created by Rick & Julie Howell.

Back rowô Murray Little, Michael Gruber, Julia Painchaud, Angela Dawson, Barb Fudge, Ed Fudge & Dylan Hibbert.

The team practices a circle formation, while Ed Fudge wheels his virtual bicycle through the maneuver.
